By Chris Reidy, Globe Staff

e-Dialog, a provider of advanced e-mail marketing services, said it has expanded its corporate headquarters by more than 50 percent.

The company, previously based in Lexington, said in a press release that it recently relocated into 47,426 square feet of office space at the Northwest Park corporate campus in Burlington.

“Even in this difficult economic climate, many companies are advancing their use of e-mail marketing as the ultimate way to communicate and build long-term, profitable relationships with their customers,” John Rizzi, president and chief executive of e-Dialog, said in a statement.

The photo of the corporate headquarters that appears with this post was included with the company's press release.
